

UNIT 1 – LIVING IN LONDON

COURS 1 – ACTIVITE 2 – VIDEO: LONDON TOP 10 ATTRACTIONS - CORRECTION

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RKNBlitoXMQ>

- Dresse la liste des 10 attractions mentionnées (dans l'ordre) puis essaie de noter quelques détails d'information pour chacune (mots clés):

10- Saint Paul's cathedral : it's the seat of the bishop (évêque) of London today

9- Trafalgar square: It's a famous square. At the centre is Nelson square.

8- the double-decker bus: It's a London icon.

7- the Thames river cruise: many attractions of London are visible from the cruise.

6- Covent garden: a vegetable garden in the Middle ages. Today it's a hub of restaurants, pubs and shops

5- Tower of London: built over 900 years ago , a historic landmark

4- London Bridge: one of the world's most famous Bridges, constructed in 1894

3- Houses of Parliament: it is also known as Westminster Palace

2- Buckingham Palace: It is residence of the British Monarch

1- London eye: It was created for the millennium celebration.

- Puis tente de comprendre plus en détails en notant les informations manquantes dans les phrases (commence par lire attentivement les phrases avant de visionner la vidéo):

The host is named: Naomie

You can find many restaurants, pubs and shops at this attraction (in the past it was a garden):

Covent Garden

This attraction is a famous square in central London it has fountains at the centre: Trafalgar Square

This attraction is where the queen lives: Buckingham Palace

You can tour the city in this famous attraction: The double-decker bus

This attraction is famous in the world and is a technical exploit: The London bridge

This attraction was built in the 7th Century with 4 other churches: Saint Paul's Cathedral

You can see many other London's attractions from this original attraction: The Thames river cruise

This attraction is very old and has many secrets. You can visit it with a guide: The Tower of London

This attraction is one of the world's largest wheels in the world: The London Eye

This attraction is the seat of 2 important political institutions: The Houses of Parliament

This is not to be missed when you go to Buckingham Palace: The changing of the guards

Résumé à recopier et à mémoriser:

There are many things to do in London. In Covent Garden, there are many restaurants, pubs and shops. In the past, it was a garden.

At Trafalgar square, in central London there are many fountains.

You can tour the city in a double-decker bus or there is the Thames River cruise if you prefer a more original attraction.

At Buckingham Palace, there is a famous attraction: the changing of the guards. Don't miss it.

The tower of London is very old and it has many secrets.

In London there is a technical exploit of the past, the London Bridge but there is also the largest wheel in the world: the London Eye.

Saint-Paul Cathedral is a very old and very important church.

Vocabulaire à retenir:

Nouns	Verbs	Adjectives	Other
A restaurant	(to) miss	Technical	many
A pub	(to) tour the city	Old
A square	(to) visit	Original
A double-decker bus		Important
A church
A cathedral
A cruise
A wheel
A guided tour

Elements de syntaxe à retenir:

Pour décrire un lieu et énumérer ce qu'on y trouve: THERE IS + GN singulier

THERE ARE + GN pluriel

= "il y a...."

There is a river in London

There are many attractions in London.

Attention: ne pas confondre avec "it has" qui indique la possession.